

Benjamin Fulford - December 19th 2016: – Old reality fading quickly as pole shift now fully underway

The collective story by which humanity has been herded into the future is undergoing a pole shift, and the old reality is fading rapidly. The story by which the world, especially the Western world, has been living in was one of a never ending war on terror and an engineered clash between Islam and Christianity. The mass murdering criminals whose “social engineering” has perpetuated this story are being hunted down and killed or else are under house arrest or in hiding.

One of the most senior members of the cabal behind the atrocities in Syria and elsewhere, Bishop Javier Echevaria, the head of the fascist Opus Dei Vatican organization was killed last week after he tried to overturn the election of Donald Trump as President of the United States, Pentagon sources say. The Vatican says he died of natural causes.

Three independent sources, one CIA, one Pentagon and one bloodline are also saying that David Rockefeller and Nathaniel Rothschild, the respective bloodline leaders of the US and the EU were also killed last week. No confirmation of this has been obtained, as of the time of this writing from either the Rockefeller or Rothschild families.

The sources also say the Clintons, the Bushes, Senator John McCain and many other cabal leaders are under house arrest and are only allowed out under carefully chaperoned circumstances pending their war crimes trials.

We certainly hope these trials will materialize but in any case it is very clear that the people who have been running the planet (especially the West) until now are in a state of deep panic.

Part of the reason for the panic is that an updated membership list of the committee of 300, the secret government of the West, has been made public.

The fact is that even if these people are now backing away from the never ending war on terror scenario and are instead pushing for a global carbon tax, they have been so incompetent at ruling this planet that they have provoked a mass popular uprising against their rule. This tweet, on an account allegedly put up by AnadeRothschild, captures the sentiment: “Pat Taylor @PT_Fino 11 月 29 日 @AnaDeRothschild I’d like your entire bloodline to be executed on live TV. Call me old fashioned.”

This is why they are now in a state of deep funk.

A visible manifestation of their desperation is the hysterical claims by the corporate media and compromised intelligence agency sources like Saudi loving CIA director John Brennan that “Russian hacking” was responsible for the election of Donald Trump. Just like the Washington Post was forced to back off from a list of “fake news” sites it published recently, the Russians are now demanding that US Presidential spokesperson Barack Obama prove the allegations or apologize. This failing Russia story is a clear indication their ability to control the world story is over.

Another sign of the panic among the leaders of the collapsing old regime is the fact that Hillary Clinton and Obama both contacted the White Dragon Society last week to say that they were not responsible for the March 11, 2011 tsunami and nuclear terror attack on Japan. They claim, as do the Gnostic Illuminati, that Russia’s Vladimir Putin was the person behind that operation. Multiple sources have confirmed that the nuclear weapon used for that attack came from the Russian submarine Kursk that sank in 2000. At the time the Rothschild agent Dr. Michael Meiring told the WDS the Rothschilds were responsible for that attack. Since both the NSA and the gnostic Illuminati claim Putin takes orders from Jacob and Evelyn de Rothschild, claims of his involvement in 311 may well be true.

The Rothschilds, for their part, say they take their orders from the P2 Freemason lodge. It is a fact that self-described P2 heir apparent Leo Zagami sent threatening and bragging e-mails immediately after 311 (Fukushima) and made threats to destroy Tokyo as well. Japanese government sources confirm the threats to Tokyo from the P2.

Another very interesting P2 freemason connection to Japan has also come out. Zhang Shengzhi, a man who claims (and provides documentation to back this), to be an heir to the Manchu throne says the mother of the Meiji Emperor was a Hapsburg princess who was also a renowned photographer. A cousin of the Japanese emperor says this claim is likely to be true “because there were a lot of Jews in the town where the Meiji Emperor came from.” Since the Hapsburgs claim to be descended from the Caesars, as do the heads of the P2, it means Japan has been a Roman colony since the Meiji era with the imperial family being used as proxy rulers.

Zhang, who was mentioned in the May 5th, 2015 edition of this newsletter, says he provided the Japanese government with documents proving his claim that he was the rightful heir to the gold that was used to set up the Bank of Japan. The Japanese government did not openly dispute his claim, he says. However, after he presented the documents he was beaten up by three thugs and then arrested. He was held for 23 days, the maximum time a person can be held in Japan without charges being laid, and was then forcibly confined in Tokyo’s Musashi Mental hospital. Zhang was finally able to get out after sympathetic doctors, who could tell he was not insane, allowed him to check himself out recently, he says.

Zhang, the Showa Emperors’ cousin and many other sources also claim the current emperor of Japan is not from the Japanese royal family. If that is the case, then the right to issue Japanese yen and the Bank of Japan are based on nothing but fraud.

Of course the same can be said of the Federal Reserve Board and the EU central bank. In the US major moves against this fraud continue. One example is that the US Supreme Court refused to hear an appeal by former AIG CEO Hank Greenburg seeking to avoid fraud charges for hiding massive losses from investors, Pentagon sources say. This opens the way to mass arrests of other Wall Street executives.

Also, the Supreme Court ruled 8 to 0 in the Shas vs US case that bank fraud statutes apply to those who defraud bank customers as well as to the banks “making bank execs liable for screwing customers,” a Pentagon source notes. The big law firms, like sharks smelling blood, are preparing for a Wall Street feeding frenzy.

The high ranking consiglieri of the old regime like George Bush Jr., Condoleezza Rice, Jim Baker and Bob Gates are lobbying hard for Exxon Mobil CEO Rex Tillerson to be made Secretary of State but that “this will not save them from 911 and war crimes charges,” the Pentagon sources say. Henry Kissinger, long term Rockefeller bagman, is now a Ronin (masterless Samurai) desperately kissing Trump’s ass in the hopes of retaining influence.

There were more confirmations last week that the incoming Trump government in the US is basically a military one. Former Navy Seal Commander Ryan Zinke was named to the Department of the Interior while former army Lieutenant General Keith Kellogg was selected as Chief of Staff of the National Security Council.

This government is taking a military approach to the Khazarian mafia, which means either killing them or forcing them to surrender. There is some sort of battle going on in and around Denver, Colorado, the Pentagon sources say, confirming that foreign troops are converging there. This writer has seen with his own eyes the masses of fenced in areas and air-ventilation shafts around Denver airport. This is apparently one of the final Khazarian strongholds and it is being taken down.

The US military also claim they were able to neutralize nuclear weapons that were to be used in false flag attacks in Yellowstone, near the Trump tower in New York and Mt. Lassen in Northern California.

Furthermore, Pentagon sources say US, Russian and Iranian special forces are working together to “terminate” ISIS forces in Palmyra, Syria. There was also a big earthquake in Papua New Guinea indicating the Khazarian submarine base there is under attack, the sources say.

Special forces are also being sent to the Getty Center in California to flush out Satanists living under it, WDS sources say. The museum was built at a cost of $6 billion at a time when a 1000 room casino could be built for $500 million because most of the work was underground, the sources say.

The gnostic Illuminati say the entire current world power structure is crumbling and will be replaced by something new and better.
